

The Bible*

or

My Emotions?

My Experience?

My Friends?

Other Books?

My Logic?

Experts?

*Since some people may interpret parts of the Bible differently from others, we must learn to do careful Bible study to make sure we are not misinterpreting Biblical principles. Other Christians, who have had more years of Bible study, may be able to help us. That's one reason that God says there is safety in a multitude of counselors (Proverbs 24:6). But getting wisdom from counselors does not excuse us from doing careful personal Bible study ourselves!